

Blues for Dad

M.&L.: W. Schmidder

1. Sometimes I feel lonely – since you've been gone
All our memories – from father to son
All our struggles – and all our fights
Forgiven, forgotten – what stays is your smile

Chorus:

Now I'm sittin' here thinkin' – 'bout the good things we've done
Tears are runnin' down my face – when I write your song
You had the answers – when I lost my way
Daddy I miss you – more than I can say

2. Decisions ain't easy – without your advice
I remember your words: "Son, you'd better think twice."
There are so many questions – the answers could hurt
That's just the fact – of unspoken words

Chorus:

Now I'm sittin' here thinkin' – 'bout the good things we had
Our days in New Orleans – watchin' TV in bed
For me, it's not easy – to walk in your shoes
Daddy I miss you – this one's for you

Solo

- 3: Sometimes I feel lonely – when I'm thinkin' of you
I always think about you – when I'm playin' the blues
I play it our way – sometimes sad, sometimes loud
Dad can you hear this – are you a little bit proud

Chorus:

Now I'm sittin' here thinkin' – 'bout the good things we've done
Tears were runnin' down my face – when I wrote your song
Hope you're alright now – together with mum
Oh, how I miss you – forever your son
