

Out of sight

Music: J. Lhotsky & W. Schmidder
Lyrics: J. Lhotsky

1.

When I was a little kid, back to the old times
So sweet and innocent, the apple of your eye
Love, Home and Shelter, you gave everything to me
Nothin' could divide us, a perfect family

Chorus:

Where have all the good times gone?
Tell me what is wrong?
Out of sight and out of mind – and your life is going on

2.

Daddy was working hard, eighteen hours a day
You said it was boring, just to see the baby play
Daddy got a better job, became a rich man's wife
But you still picked on him, wanted a better life

Chorus:

3.

Couple of years later you kicked my daddy's ass
You found yourself a psycho man, end of happiness
You were only there for him my life turned kind of rough
Honey here, honey there – you tried to buy his love

Chorus:

SOLO
